

GEOCACHE ALASKA! INC.

Exploring the Last Frontier • www.geocachealaska.org

A non-profit Alaskan Geocaching Organization which:

- Promotes Geocaching as an exciting, family-oriented activity which encourages healthy, outdoor recreational activity
 - Educates geocachers on a wide variety of geocaching and outdoors related topics and skills, to include low-impact geocaching and stewardship of our parks, trail systems, and other natural resources and public lands
 - Represents geocaching interests in public forums and with recreational and public land managers
 - Increases awareness of geocaching issues through interaction with other outdoor groups and the general public
 - Promotes the "Cache In Trash Out" (CITO) program to help clean up our public lands, to include a 2-mile section of the Seward Highway near Girdwood that was awarded to GeocacheAlaska! under the state's Adopt a Highway program
 - Sponsors and hosts various fun social events for geocachers to meet and socialize with other geocachers
 - Produces and sells custom Alaska geocaching items, such as trackable Geocoins, maintains an extensive Website including a large discussion forum, and publishes a valuable monthly newsletter that is distributed via email
- ➔ Sourdough Members help financially support the organization and receive discounts on all purchases and event entry fees, a free geocachealaska.org email account, and a personalized trackable Sourdough Member name tag
